

CORRECTIONS AND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

JULY 26, 2019 CATALOG

Lot 3. May be by the Peterson Factory according to a well known Factory decoy collector.

Lot 4. May be by the Peterson Factory according to a well known Factory decoy collector.

Lot 38. Screw was not missing. The owl has the original screw.

Lot 70. is a Hutchinson's goose. Not a Richardson's goose.

Lot 130. Lincoln widgeon. Right side of neck has an old in use repair.

Lot 145. Identified by Mr. Clark on the bottom as by Charles Jester. Maker is Douglas Jester Jr.

Lot 302. Black duck in mint condition by Gene Hendrickson of Northfield, NJ. 200-400

Lot 304. Bill has teeth marks in the center. May have been off and glue together. C1800's

Lot 371. Tube Dawson mallard hen. Paint is not by Dawson. Repainted by Helen Hagerman.

Loy 395A. Small piece off the front lower neck. May be by Peterson rather than Dodge according to a well known Factory decoy collector.

Lot 395B. May be by Peterson rather than Dodge according to a well known Factory decoy collector.

Lot 413. O H on the bottom is for Oliver Hunt, Frank Combs neighbor.

All decoys listed as by Joe Lincoln, Joseph Whiting Lincoln or Joseph Lincoln are by "THE" Joe Lincoln of Accord, MA.